In the July 15, 2002 Office Action, the Examiner divided the claims into two groups and required the Applicant to elect one group for further prosecution. The two groups are as follows:

- I. Claims 43-56, drawn to an array of biomolecules comprising a plurality of beads having biomolecules attached thereto, wherein the plurality of beads comprise different bead types; and
- II. Claims 57-69, drawn to a method of detecting the formation of an analyte-biomolecule complex.

In response, Applicant elects without traverse the claims of Group I for further prosecution.

Respectfully submitted,

Julie Bowker
